Let's Get Moving

Dragon Tag

- Split players into groups of four or more and have them form chains by linking arms and grabbing each others' shoulders.
- Give the last player in each chain a scarf, bandana or long sock that they hold behind them like a tail.
- Shout "Go" and the Dragons being to chase each other, trying to grab the opponents' tails while protecting their own. Only the first player in the dragon chain can grab another teams' tail. Each team's chain must stay together.
- Once a Dragon's tail is captured, that Dragon stops and cheers on the other Dragons.
- Play until one player has all tails, or for a predetermined time period.
- When playing again, have the children switch positions so they can see what it is like to be different parts of the Dragon.
